

MonoTorrent - Bug # 222: MonoTorrent Tracker PeerTimedOut not firinig?

Status:	Closed	Priority:	Normal
Author:	Yavor Ivanov	Category:
Created:	10/19/2009	Assigned to:	Alan McGovern
Updated:	11/12/2009	Due date:
Subject:	MonoTorrent Tracker PeerTimedOut not firinig?
Description:	Can someone investigate does the PeerTimedOut event ever fire? I havent been able to fire it in MonoTorrent 0.72.

History

11/12/2009 01:17 AM - Alan McGovern

- Status changed from New to Closed
- Assigned to set to Alan McGovern
- % Done changed from 0 to 100

The default timeout is 50 minutes, so if you want a peer to time out you have to wait until he fails to announce within that interval. The only case that this should happen would be if the peers client crashed or computer had a power failure. All well behaved clients indicate they are exiting before they actually shut down.