Subject:	Hide Chanserv and Nickserv messages
Description:	As the title says, please make an option to hide the chanserv and nickserv messages. I really dont care what they say. And i really dont need them to get their own tab! They clutter my tabs. You could let the chanserv and nickserv messages show in the server window. Thanks in advance

[Engine-IRC] Reworked how private notices are handled

- A notice will no longer open new tabs, instead show the notice on the server tab. This avoids NickServ/ChanServ spam (closes: #554) and also IRCop tab spam (closes: #226)
- Notices from users you share channels with will also be shown on the channel and the server tab to make it easier to see their notices. (closes: #38)

The issue is that ChanServ and NickServ are not part of the IRC RFC and cannot be detected easily in a IRC network independent way. Setting a filter is not an option? see http://www.smuxi.org/ezfaq/show/smuxi?faq_id=13
