Subject:	Persistent chat history needs to remember seen highlights/messages for the message counters
Description:	If you re-open a closed chat, the message counters show all loaded messages and highlights as unseen. This is annoying and needs to be fixed.

Engine: make last seen message and highlight persistent (closes: #1040)

Since Smuxi supports persistent messages it should also remember which messages and highlights were already seen, else it always had to show them as new/unseen.
